All NARI SD Members Must Ascribe to the NARI Code of Ethics

Members of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry are pledged to observe the highest standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conduct of business.

1. By promoting only those products and services which are functionally and economically sound, and which are consistent with objective standards of health and safety;
2. By making all advertising and sales promotion factually accurate with respect to product description, performance specification, and cost/benefit analysis, and by avoiding those practices which tend to mislead or deceive the customer with respect to competitive pricing, savings claims, or the nature and significance of contracts, warranties, finance agreements, completion certificates, lien waivers, or liability and workers' compensation insurance.;
3. By writing all contracts and warranties such that they are fair and mutually beneficial to all parties concerned, such that they are free of ambiguities or omissions which tend to obscure contractual obligations, and such that warranty terms and provisions are free of the capacity to mislead or deceive the customer as to the quality or longevity of the product or service;
4. By honoring all contractual obligations until and unless they are altered or dissolved by the mutual consent of all contractual parties concerned, and fulfilling those obligations in a reasonably prompt manner that is fair to all parties concerned;
5. By promptly acknowledging and acting on all customer complaints, and, in situations where complaints appear unreasonable and persistent, by encouraging the customer to initiate an approved third party dispute settlement mechanism; and
6. By refraining from any act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition, and to thereby promote the private enterprise system and its guaranty of equal rights for all.

I hereby agree to adhere to the NARI Code of Ethics (as stated above) at all times.
